This programme, the twenty-first in the series begun by Nicholas Conington, was produced by Paul Randall, who would like to thank John Bowerman for compiling the Torpids and Eights charts, all the college boat club captains for their crew lists, Jet Photographic UK for the Oriel Men's 1st VIII photograph, Eaden Lilley Photography for the Blue Boat photograph and the officers of OUBC for their reports.

The OURC Secretary would like to thank all those who have been of great help in the last year, especially Rachel Quarrell, Neil Townsend, Anu Dudhia, Michael Spence, Ailsa Curtis and, last but not least, Laura Dance.

Due to a number of crews not succeeding in "Rowing-on" last Friday, some crews named in this programme may not be rowing in Eights Week.

DANIEL SNOW
Retiring President

It has not been easy for anyone at OUBC to swallow the loss of the Boat Race or the Isis/Goldie race this year. All season we were beset by adversity only to come through it stronger, faster and more cohesive as a team. We turned every disadvantage into an advantage. Between Christmas and the Boat Race we spent a total of three weeks rowing out of our Boathouse at Wallingford, the rest of the time we commuted around the country to London, Dorney or wherever there wasn't flooding. For many weeks we trained twice a day on the ergs and as a result we were best to have the best ergo average of any Blue Boat ever.

As the day drew near the whole squad walked with a bounce in our step, everyone believing that we could pull off one of the greatest upsets in recent history. We went on a training camp to the docks and clocked very fast times; in absolute terms, we were the fastest Oxford Blue Boat ever. The programme all year had been very scientific, gradually becoming tailored to people's individual needs and the improvement was a marked result. Our warm up on the day had been planned minutely with the help of a sports psychologist, and the result was our best ever warm up. Nerves were banished and it helped to ensure that our start was our best ever race start. In short, we were ready for anything, Olympians and World Champions in the Cambridge Boat notwithstanding.

As it turned out we were ready for anything except for what actually resulted. In a cruel twist of fate, the same rains that had ruined our training all year, brought flood waters even to the broad Thames. The outside station was heavily disadvantaged, our real chance of winning was to get a good strong lead and get in front early enough so that we could tuck into the side. We accepted this, understood it and were in the process of doing it when the Umpire stopped the race and pulled us backed to start level. This removed our physical advantage and more importantly our psychological advantage of having exploded out of the blocks and settled into a long rhythm.

We started again a seat down and pointing the wrong way and the rest of the race we desperately held on with a gutsy row of which I will forever be proud. After the professionalism, belief and enthusiasm with which we approached this year, defeat was a bitter pill to swallow. You cannot be a good loser when you sacrifice everything for the one event. This year, only 20 people came through the door to begin training. Oxford can have the better programme, coaching and support. It is time for the colleges and the university to get behind the OUBC and for rowers turning up and giving it a go. It is an amazing experience – give yourself the chance to compete for glory.

OXFORD UNIVERSITY BOAT CLUB TRUST FUND

The Trust, which was set up in 1947, is a registered charity administered by a committee of up to ten members, together with, as ex officio members, the Treasurers and current Presidents of OUBC, OUWBC, OULRC, OUWLRC and the Secretary of College Rowing.

The Trust makes grants for any purpose deemed to be beneficial to Oxford rowing in the widest sense. In recent years it has provided the funds to build the Rowing Centre at Iffley Road and plans are being finalised to build a new boathouse facility. Each year it has made grants to the "poorer" University clubs, to college, composite and development crews competing at Henley and on occasions to assist Oxford men or women who are in, or aspiring to, the British National Teams.

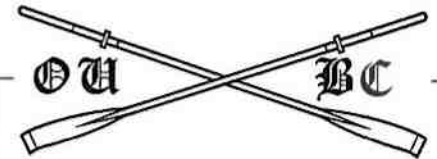

The Trust is financed by donations from former members of college and university crews and from other friends of Oxford rowing.

Please help the Trust to continue this vital financial support.

OUWBC President's Report

JESICA WILSON
OUWBC President 2001-2002

This year has been yet another exciting year for Oxford University Women's Boat Club. There have been many changes in both our training and coaching team which we believe will make us stronger and faster – in fact the results for the boat race in Nottingham have shown that Oxford University Women's Boat Club is certainly a force to be reckoned with!

The year started well with a fantastic influx of new and keen college rowers who joined many of last year's athletes. In fact we had a very experienced squad (three presidents under the same roof!), which reflected well in both our training attitudes and our determination. We were unlucky that we were not able to race more due to both poor conditions and the foot and mouth crisis, but we reacted well and had a great time on training camp in Belgium and seized every opportunity possible to race other crews!

The races were moved to Nottingham the week before and we felt confident with our preparations. Osiris had the race of their lives and beat Blondie, the Cambridge reserve crew, by an incredible margin. In fact it was the first time in the history of the races that Osiris had defeated Blondie by an 'easy victory'. Unfortunately, the Blue Boat had an awesome start but never consolidated on their lead and were pipped to the line by just three feet. We are proud that it was the closest women's boat race ever to happen, but obviously gutted by the result! Losing is something that none of us have found easy, but something that has certainly brought the crew even closer together and already fuelled our determination and dedication for next years race!

Next year we are going to build on the foundations that we have laid this year, and we are definitely going to win. We believe that in essence we have a squad system that works well, and we have looked hard to identify and resolve every part of our three feet loss. We realize our success next year depends on rowers coming through the college system and wanting to be part of what we hold so dear. Out of this years blue boat 7 of the crew learnt at their colleges, and in Osiris there was only one schoolgirl rower.

If you want to be involved with a club that is going to be exciting, successful (at times very entertaining!) but above all very very fast then seriously think about giving summer squad a go! Rowing for Oxford is an incredible achievement and certainly something I feel immensely proud to have done. Being part of OUWBC will give you the opportunity to have undoubtedly the most memorable moment of your life when you cross that finish line first!

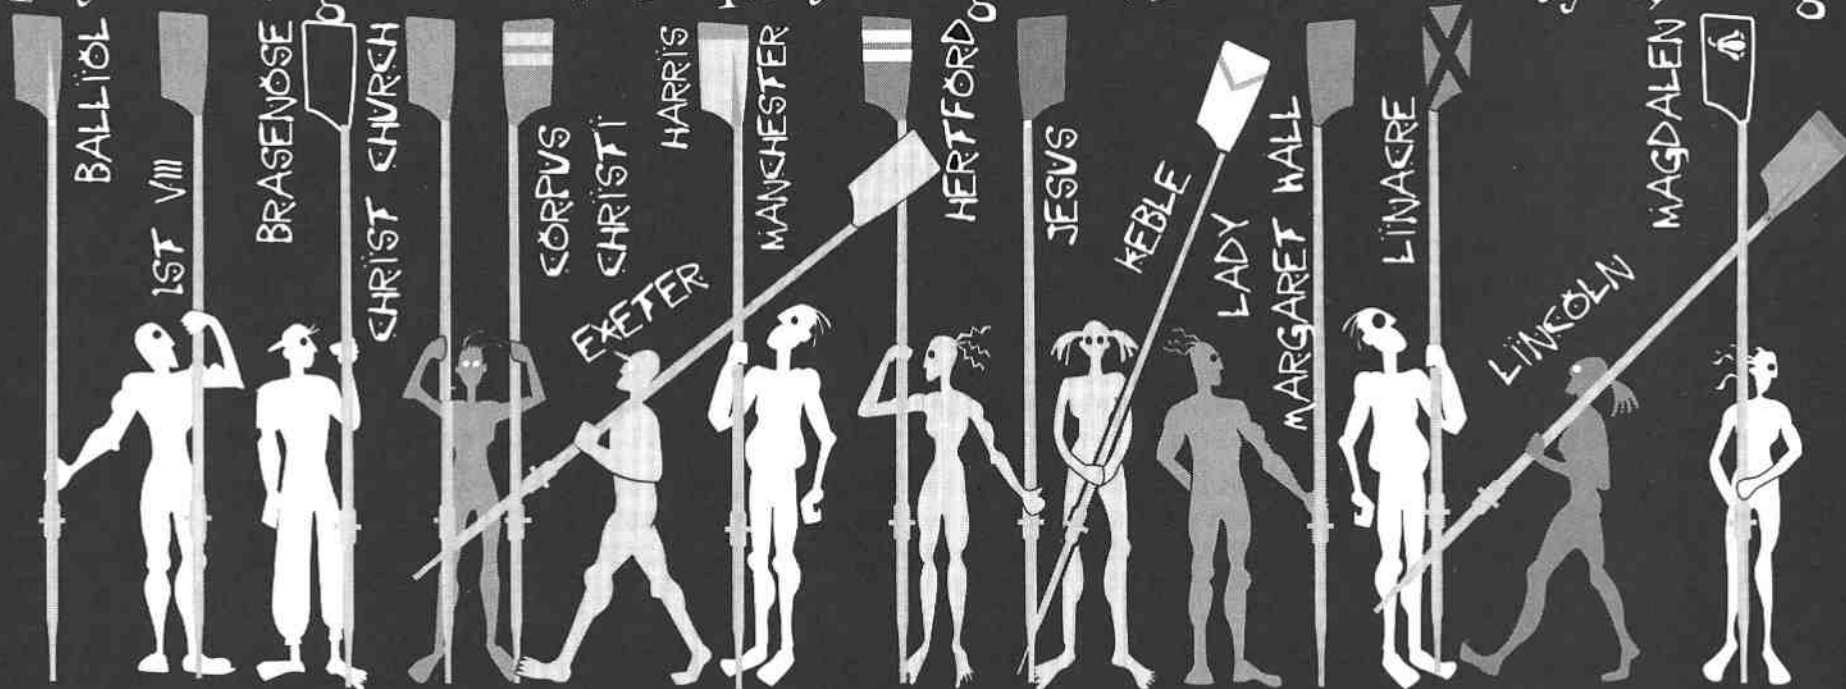

So if you want to be part of next years annihilation then either contact me jess.wilson@oriel.ox.ac.uk or check out our website www.ouwbc.com

I can assure you now, you'll be glad you have!

After the debacle of the rained off Torpids, a number of crews were looking to prove what might have been. In the men's competition, Pembroke, Oriel, Exeter and Christchurch had all been denied the chance to battle it out. In the women's competition, Osler-Green were relieved to see the week go by without a stroke taken.

The various regattas in the calendar before Summer Eights: Bedford and MarchFirst in particular, had already given a clear indication of the form of the various crews in the men's 1st division. Oriel had already beaten Christchurch and Exeter in side-by-side races and also, indirectly, Pembroke. There was a lot more uncertainty at the top of women's division 1, with a weak Osler-Green being chased by strong crews from Pembroke and New, both with various University oarswomen on board.

At the beginning of Eights week the river was once again on red flag, much to everyone's despair. However, conditions improved and the top divisions raced in half divisions on the first day and the lower divisions raced on the Friday and Saturday.

In the women's competition Osler-Green were bumped off head by Pembroke on the Wednesday and were bumped again by New on Thursday. They would in fact go down four places, ending their reign that had begun in 1994. Thus Pembroke and New were left to battle it out on the Friday and Saturday. New made a quick start on the Friday to close to within a canvas going into the gut, but Pembroke held their nerve and pulled away. The Saturday saw New close again, but again Pembroke controlled the situation to win their Headship. Other risers in women's division 1 were Merton (up 3 to 8th place) and Magdalen (4 bumps in 3 days to finish 9th). Further down Keble stormed into division 2 with 5 bumps. University and Brasenose were the main 1st division casualties, falling 4 and 5 places respectively.

By contrast, men's division one saw few changes, and most of these at the expense of Brasenose plummeting. Lincoln, with 3 Blues and an Isis oarsman on board rose four places to finish 11th. They failed to win blades however as they failed to bump on the Saturday when Christchurch hit the falling Brasenose crew ahead of them. Balliol bumped New on Friday as they went up two places to 5th. They might have done this on the Thursday but the division was halted due to a pile up lower down the division. By the time Oriel, Pembroke and Exeter had stopped and turned round, there was no time for a re-row. After a lot of arguing and shouting everyone was sent home, with Exeter having put Pembroke under a lot of pressure before the stop.

Oriel rowed over around 5-6 lengths clear of Pembroke each day until on the Saturday they easy-oared outside their boathouse, then inexplicably crashed into the bank 100 metres later. This contretemps forced an unscheduled stop before rowing off again to finish on their distance. Other movers and shakers in division 2 (apart from Lincoln) were Hertford and Wadham (both up 3). University and St. John's joined Brasenose in winning spoons.

A moment that those involved will not forget occurred in women's division 5. In a multiple boat pile up in the gut the stroke of Christchurch III got ejected from her boat and was left swimming around as more boats crashed into the back of the stationary crews. In a moment of tragic-comic genius the safety launch arrived swiftly, too swiftly in fact, as it sped straight into Christchurch IV causing severe damage to the bows. (Apologies if the unfortunate crews were not those named, a year on those people interviewed by the Aussie Chicken may not remember exactly).

Following the disappointment of last years cancellation, all eyes were on ORIEL to see whether they could regain the Headship from PEMBROKE. This they did in imperious style, bumping on the Wednesday opposite the OUBC pontoon. The next three days saw ORIEL row Head many lengths clear of PEMBROKE. They remain the class act on the Isis.

Other movers in Men's Division One were NEW who fell two, being bumped by EXETER and CHRIST CHURCH, while ST. CATZ won blades, rising four places. MERTON fell a whole division and BALLIOL was another big dissapointment, dropping out of Men's Division Two.

ST.CATZ bumped to Head in the Women's Division, knocking NEW down one in the process. Merton were another big riser, winning blades to end third on the river. ORIEL women went some way to repeat the success of their men, rising seven places, while TRINITY plumeted, and will be keen to reverse this fall come Eights.

Between divisions, the OUBC will operate a ferry between the meadow bank and the towpath, on each night of eights from 12.00 noon until 20 minutes after the First Division has rowed. The ferry is under the control of the College Secretary of the OURC's who is responsible for all the organisation of Eights.

The use of the ferry is for college crews, those assisting college boat clubs and for OURC officers, with priority for the latter and for coaches. Those who wish to cross on the ferry should consult a steward or marshal who may decide priority for those crossing. The ferry rafts are out of bounds to those without permission to cross.

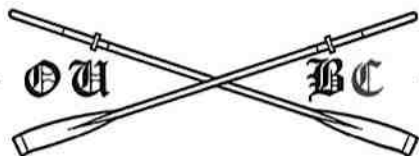

No alcohol may be carried on the ferry. College boat clubs are responsible for the proper use of the ferry by their members.

The OUBC thanks the ferry men for their voluntary service.

Ferry Notice

Leo John Blockley

4 January 1979 – 29 December 2000

Leo Blockley, 21, a popular and well-liked member of the Oxford men's lightweight squad, disappeared during a training outing on the River Ebro on December 29, when freak circumstances led to the swamping of two eights. This occurred during a training camp held in Amposta, near the east coast of Spain. His parents flew out from Manchester to be near the scene, but had to return to England. His body was found 5km downstream by a local fireman and rower, four weeks later.

Leo was someone who gave everything that he had to everything that he did; it was not in his nature to do anything half-heartedly. He leaves behind many happy and good memories of his life and his character.

Leo was a graduate of Downing College, Cambridge where he had studied Maths, and had come to Oxford in October to do a MSc in Statistics at Lincoln College, whose rector, Paul Langford, said, 'the college deeply regrets the loss of a young man with so much already achieved and so much yet to offer'. He had always shown himself a talented mathematician, but his talents did not end there, being a fanatical sportsman, both in competing and supporting.

His popularity was shown by the numbers attending his memorial gatherings in Oxford and Ashton. His positive and cheerful manner had affected many different people, and he was always capable of leading the charge when out.

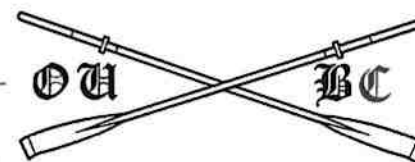

In his rowing, he applied himself with determination, and although he was late arriving with OULRC to trial, he soon established himself both as a popular member of the squad and as a talented and hard-working oarsman. He was very competitive and loved to race, and there's no doubt that the club lost a real positive strength in our crews.

There are many people who have helped us as a squad during this extremely difficult time. Especial thanks go to Stephen, Jane and Rebecca Blockley for their wholehearted and continued support. Our thanks also go to the many people who helped us in the aftermath of the accident in Amposta; Richard Hartley, Jon Roycroft and everyone else from the university; everyone at Club Nautica Amposta, Jacqueline O'Neill, and the Spanish emergency services and everyone who gave their time so freely in the search for Leo; especially to Toni Paz who spent his off-duty hours searching and finding him.

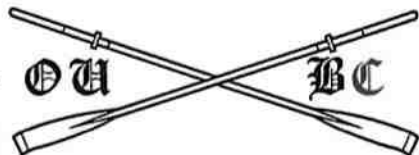

Despite an extremely good win for Nephthys at the beginning of the day, levelling the series (1-1!), the blue boat lost to an extremely fast Cambridge blue boat. Considering everything that the club has had to endure this year, we felt that both crews performed with pride and upheld the best of club traditions. We intend to build strongly on this year, and encourage as many people as possible to consider squad rowing next year.

Thanks to our sponsors, especially Arthur D. Little's c-quential, JPMorgan, JL Racing, and Maureen Catlin. Thanks also to our coaches; Leila Hudson, Jon Price, Bill Potter, David Hardy, Steve Royle, Chris Grumble, Mike Hill, Tim Waters, Mark Lauder, Chris Jones, Dick Catlin, Ben Crystal; to our new senior member, Martin McNally, for stepping in during what was supposed to be a quiet year; OUBC, OUWBC and OUWLRC for all their help, advice and generosity, especially Sean Bowden and Kev McWilliams; Dr David Otterburn, Liz Purcell, Michelle Alley, John Starrat, and Helen the physio for keeping us all fit, slim and well; the club's steering committee, especially Jon Watkinson; the OUBC trust fund, especially Mike Pelham; Radley College, especially Malcolm Mace, Ray Underwood, Jock Mullard and Jean l'Manach; UTRC, LRC, KCSWBC, WSBC, ASBC, ULBC, BLRC, the Van Tullekens for all their hospitality, friendship and generosity; finally to the committee, Pete, Paul, Iain, Ashley and Kate.

OUWLRC 2001

ANNA SNOW
OUWLRC President 2000/2001

As president of the club this year, what stands out to me is the mental toughness of the 2001 squad, who refused to let any of the obstacles hurled at them put them off their stride. There is no question that it has been an unusual year for rowing in general and, in particular, the women's lightweights were also adjusting to a new training programme led by Roger Wiggin who joined us over the summer. Despite regular cancellations in the racing calendar, we did manage to race at Upper Thames Small Boats Head, Head of the Trent and the Women's Head of the River Race, where we were extremely pleased with the development of the squad, having missed such huge chunks of our water training.

Obviously the result against Cambridge in Nottingham was gutting, but we know we rowed the fastest 2km race we were able to produce that day. The race crew bonded very well early on, after a very tough selection process, which involved extensive seat racing on several occasions. Those who were in Staffordshire with us in January will remember the coaching team having to break the morning ice with a paddle on the third day of racing. I'm fairly sure most of us smile looking back on the collection of personalities in the crew and the squad as a whole – an interesting blend of control freaks, some cool and calm, a few sharp comedians and a space cadet or two...representative I am sure of Oxford rowers in general. Despite rigorous land training, we were out-powered by a fairly experienced crew this year so there's some extra motivation to drive next year's trialists and help bring back the shield, which has been ours for the previous 3 consecutive years.

Several members of the squad who are not buried in finals at the moment (and some of those that are...) are competing in fours, eights and pairs and producing some strong results, indicative of the dedication shown throughout this season by all. Many are of course also racing in summer eights.

For those of you who want to take rowing to University level, I cannot recommend summer development squad strongly enough. I joined it in my second year, expecting very little, had a lot of fun at various regattas and ended up in the race crew 2 years running. The majority of this year's crew (7 including our cox) took part at some stage – some, like me, for only one race. It is a great way to cash in further on the fitness you have built up during eights training and gives you a chance to see competitive rowing outside of Oxford, which is rare for the majority of college rowers.

Finally, best of luck to our successors – it is an experience that you will never forget and, in my opinion, teaches you things about yourself and your boundaries that your degree alone may not. Just go for it.

Thanks to our sponsors for their continuing support: Resolute Racing Shells, JPMorgan and JLRacing.

Good day on the river?

Sporting events and other activities at University help to shape your experience and personality. Participating in them can develop your team skills, organisational ability and your commitment to results. You may not realise it, but these are all key skills you can bring to the job market.

At KPMG we look for people who bring us more than a good degree. We also like to hear about the different skills you've developed and experiences you've had while you've been at University. In return, we'll tell you about the training, qualifications and global opportunities we offer our graduate trainees. It's everything you expect from one of the world's leading firms of business advisers.

If you would like to hear more about our graduate and undergraduate career options visit our website at www.kpmgcareers.co.uk or call us on Freephone 0500 664665.

Enjoy your day.

It's time for clarity.
