Timing.

Teamwork.

We have a lot in common.

Successful fund management, like success on the river, doesn't just happen. It takes rigorous preparation, instinctive timing and a shared vision to stay ahead. Which is why all of our investments are backed by rigorous, team-based research and a shared vision to build high-performing funds. Giving our investors the best opportunity to have a place in the top boat.

The value of investments can fall as well as rise and you may not get back the amount originally invested. If you are unsure about the suitability of an investment please consult an authorised financial adviser.

This year's Summer Eights programme is the third to be produced as an official OURCs publication. It is result of the work of the whole OUWLRC squad, led by Rebecca Lane.

The editors would like to thank in particular the RowSab Ian Maconnachie for his relentless chasing up of the colleges and his knowledge and advice.

Thank you to BigBlade Photography for the use of their wonderful images, and to Peter Stanning and Kasia Bera for the great cover photo.

A brief history of bumps racing in Oxford

The details of collegiate rowing's origins in Oxford are lost in the mists of time, but the sport seems to have become popular by the end of the eighteenth century as a form of friendly recreation.

The first Summer Eights racing is thought to have occurred in 1815, a few months before the battle of Waterloo, when crews from Brasenose and Jesus decided to race home from Iffley Lock. Brasenose won, making them the first official 'Head of the River' crew. The competition became annual, racing from Iffley Lock to a finish line on Christ Church Meadow, marked by a flagpole on Isaac King's barge moored at the meadows bank.

By 1826 four colleges were involved and had devised bumping rules, the order of flags on the King's Barge flagpole indicating which crews had swapped places between race days. More colleges joined, and it was normal practice, in those days before academic league tables, for the crews to row down to Sandford in the afternoon. They would spend a while playing skittles or doing gymnastics, before rowing upstream again, with practice bursts in the stretch between Sandford and Iffley locks, to race one division. All racing stopped behind any crews which bumped, only those ahead continuing to try and achieve their own bump. Race days were interspersed with rest days, so the whole event spread out over a week.

In 1840, after high winds the previous year had disrupted racing, the current three-cannon starting system was put in place, and the 14 colleges then involved began the practice of 'bumping out' to the opposite bank, so that boats behind could carry on racing past them. By this time a parallel event, 'Torpids', had already started for second crews, initially on the days between 'Eights' racing, though in 1852 it moved to the spring term.

Meanwhile 'Eights' was becoming longer and longer, on the principle that enough racing days should occur for every boat, even that starting bottom, to be able to reach the Headship. Eventually a maximum of 8 days racing was decreed, and over time this has dropped to four. During the 1870s the 20 or so colleges competing became split into two divisions, each crew starting 130 feet from the one behind it.

By 1908 the entry was expanded to allow second crews into Eights, and after a gap of six years for the first world war (1914-1919) racing resumed in 1920 with increasing popularity. More divisions were added, and in the early 1930s the 'Getting On Races' (now 'Rowing On') were devised to determine which crews should occupy the final slots. The formal event was again suspended for war (1939-1945), although informal bumps-style races were held, and in 1946 the event was revived using the 1939 starting order.

Although women's rowing had existed at the university since the 1920s, and some women rowed in men's crews, there were no solely women's crews in Summer Eights until St Hilda's women entered the 1969 event by successfully rowing on and competing against the men. After the all-male undergraduate colleges started admitting women during the mid-1970s, a women's division was created in 1976, with Wadham ending the first year as Head of the River. The balance of divisions between the sexes has now almost evened out, and women have been coxing men's crews, and vice-versa, for many years.

That isn't the only change in the last century. We now use carbon fibre boats and oars instead of wooden ones, wear cotton lycra 'all-in-ones' instead of shorts and shirts (or bloomers for the women), and in this electronic age, racing is photographed, timed, videoed, commented on and tweeted to the world. The format, however, still has much in common with those early-nineteenth century races, even if the equipment looks very different.

(With grateful thanks to Anu Dudhia, whose 'History of Oxford College Rowing' remains the definitive guide to all things Isis-rowing-related, and our major source for this article.)

The Oxford University Women's Lightweight Rowing club has had a fantastic season, in an unprecedented year for Oxford rowing!

Just over two months ago the OUWLRC Blue Boat rowed to a 4 and $\frac{3}{4}$ length victory over CUWBC Lightweights at a bitterly cold and windy Dorney Lake. This followed a brilliant performance from Tethys at the Women's Eights Head of the River Race. As the first 2nd VIII OUWLRC has fielded since 2003 they held their own against the best open weight university crews in the country. Not satisfied with boat race victory, our squad is continuing to train throughout the summer. Strong performances at BUCS from all our crews, including bronze in the lightweight pair and silver in the lightweight coxless four, promise for an exciting summer of racing.

Looking back on the successes of the season it is easy to forget the hard work of the Autumn and Winter, with long hours in the gym, freezing cold mornings, injuries, illnesses and the frustrations of weeks of flooding. However since September the squad has grown into a close knit group and we have had a huge amount of fun along the way. I have thoroughly enjoyed my year as President and it has been an absolute privilege to work with this year's squad.

Lastly, all it remains to say is that none of the past eight months would have been possible without the time, energy and passion of so many people. OUWLRC owes many thanks to everyone who has helped us this year, including the OUWBC executive committee, our senior member Nanda Pirie and Rachael Luxton for being there when we needed her most. Special mention must go to our coaching team, head coach Chris O'Hara and assistant coaches Jill Betts and Toby Reinecke, for their hard work and dedication.

It has been an outstanding year for the Oxford University Women's Boat Club. Thanks to our sponsors, for the first time we now receive equal funding to the men's boat clubs as we prepare for the move to the Tideway in 2015. This has been an enormously welcome change and has allowed us to significantly improve our support network, equipment and also eliminate the financial burden from athletes.

A new squad and new coaching partnership of Head Coach Christine Wilson, a former USA Olympic coach and assistant coach Natasha Townsend, fresh from representing Team GB at the London Olympics, assembled in Oxford in early September with two main goals for the season: develop into the best university women's programme in the country and beat Cambridge in the Boat Race. After seven months of careful preparation and training, the results speak for themselves:

- Blue Boat won the Newton Women's Boat Race, beating Cambridge by 1 & 3/4 lengths
- Osiris won the Newton Women's Reserve Boat Race, beating Blondie by 6 lengths
- Winners of the Championship Eight, Intermediate Eight and Intermediate Quad and the British University Championships in May
- Fastest two women's coxed fours overall at the Fours Head in November
- University Pennant at the Diamond Jubilee Rowing Championships in October.

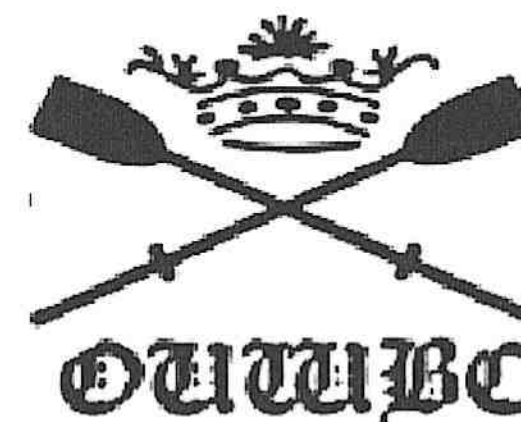

The squad is now looking forward to racing at Henley Women's Regatta and Henley Royal Regatta in the upcoming weeks. The women in the squad are from a huge range of backgrounds, some with international or junior experience and others with just 1 year of rowing prior to joining, but together have formed an exceptional team, always fun to be around, wonderfully supportive of each other and truly deserving of the success they have achieved this year.

If you are interested in developing your rowing with our Emerging Talent Group, or joining the squad for the journey towards the Boat Race in 2014, please get in contact with Christine, she would love to hear from you: christine.wilson@sport.ox.ac.uk

Finally, good luck to everyone racing this week, may the bumps be ever in your favour...

If you're at all interested in rowing or coxing for the University in the coming year, please don't hesitate to get in touch with incoming President Hannah Keenan – president-elect@oulrc.org. We will be running a development squad after Vllls, to give anyone who's interested an opportunity to experience rowing and racing for the Club. The first meeting will be on Monday of Sixth Week (27th May), at 7pm in the OUBC gym at Iffley Road. All are welcome; ideally bring some kit for a short erg.

After the winter we've had, it shouldn't have come as a surprise that on the Tuesday of Henley Week - five days before the races - I'd be sitting down with the Presidents and coaches of all the Clubs to discuss the terrible weather forecast and the possibility of moving the "Henley Boat Races" to Dorney Lake. Meeting in Dorney was confirmed, it was pretty much business as usual. There were a few logistical issues to be dealt with, but wherever the water, we were pretty confident that we would be the faster crew.

After all the hours of preparation, the race itself was really quite straight-forward. We pulled ahead stroke-all the crews would arrive for the historic Challenges by-stroke broke to clear water soon after 500m. It "to an eight-oared race over two thousand metres on the Henley Reach", we were surrounded by the history wasn't all that exciting for those on the bank - who'd and traditions of the event, and the sport as a whole, it was certainly satisfying. As President on the side that lost the Race last year, it was for me to issue this Challenge to my Cambridge counterpart; and as a member of that losing crew, I was well placed to appreciate the poignancy of this particular tradition.

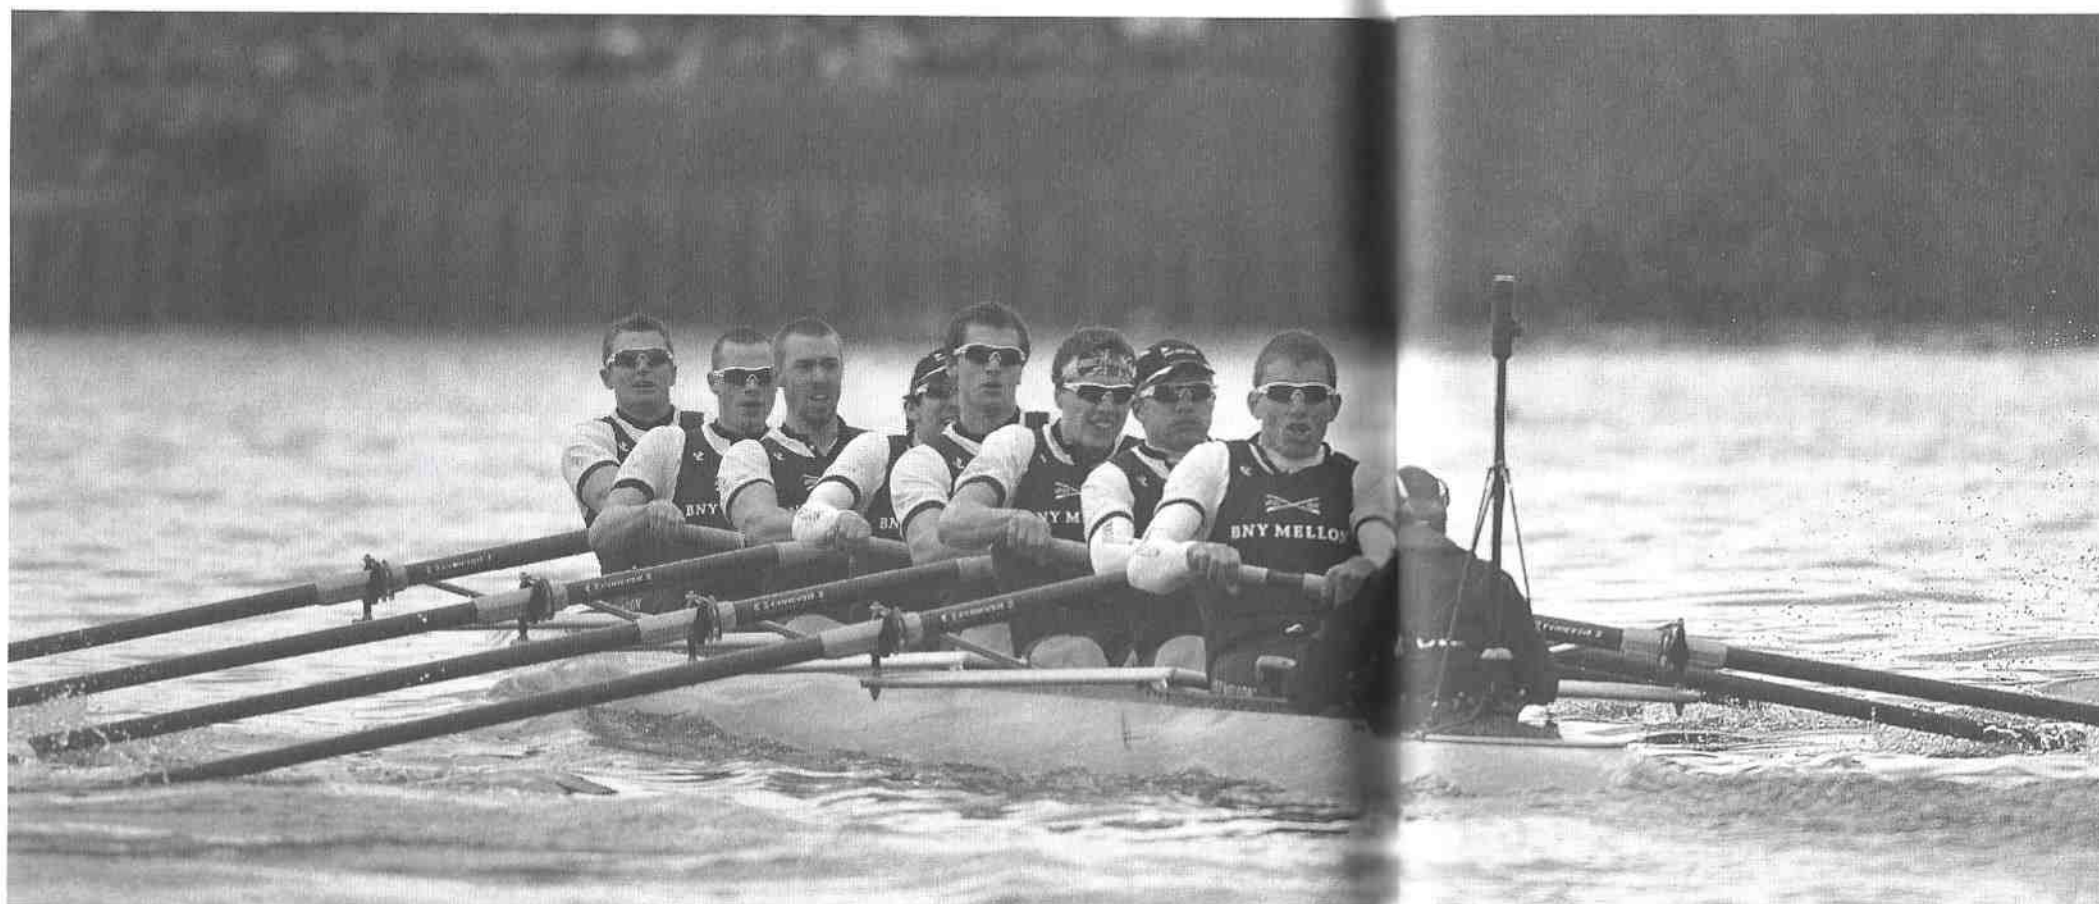

As it happened, it was a very successful day for all the Oxford crews, and it was fantastic to be able to celebrate Dark Blue wins in all the Varsity races. A week later on the Tideway, the OUBC crews would complete the 6-0 clean sweep of men's and women's heavyweight and lightweight races - for only the second time in history.

Faced with the possibility of not being able to race, however, it was very clear that more important than any of the various accompanying traditions was the rowing itself. So on the Wednesday, when the move to many different ways to making it all possible - not least: Coach Bodo; Tina Thomas; Paul Crewe, James Thom, Ben Davis and the rest of the Steering Committee; Richard and Paul from this year's Committee; Papa Till; Jack and Victoria; Max and Jasper; everyone else from both the Blue Boats and squads which I've had the good fortune to be a part of; everyone involved with our OMA and Trust Fund; Hannah Keenan, for taking the reins from me. More thanks: OUBC, OUWBC, OUWLRC - in particular Barbara Wilson, Chris O'Hara, Christine Wilson, Aislinn Brown, Bridget Fryer, Alex Davidson; the OUBC Trust Fund; Ian Maconnachie and OURCs; OU Sports Fed. and Dep.

Also: Mark Seal and Austen Dorey; Charlie Simpson, Aladdin and Deanna, Anna Reid; Ben Reed and Wallingford RC; Oxford Brookes BC; Upper Thames RC, the Italian Rowing Federation and T.S.R. Vidar; MCBC and Piers Barnett; Resolute Racing and KPMG, our sponsors.

2013 has ultimately been a great year for Oxford rowing, as we completed a clean sweep in all Varsity races over Cambridge throughout all of the clubs. For OUBC too, this will go down as a fantastic year with wins in both the Isis – Goldie race and The Boat Race.

But, as anyone who was rowing this year will testify, getting on the water at all this year was not trivial, and success by all members of the OUBC in the face of such adversity demonstrates the character of the team this year.

Early squad showings were promising with a number of returning Blues and Isis rowers as well as strong intake, international and domestic. We were able to convert strength on paper into speed at the Fours Head taking the overall sweep victory ahead of Cambridge and winning three events in total. Although flooded out of Wallingford training continued in earnest at Caversham (when not flooded off the water entirely and forced back to Iffley). The squad split for Trial Vills and produced an exceptionally close race with "Spitfire" beating "Hurricane" by 2 seats.

Christmas saw the squad go to Davos for a return of the OUBC Cross Country Skiing camp, a more popular move for some than others, and then back to Temple Sur Lot in the new year to set provisional crews.

In fixtures both crews went undefeated with Isis beating Upper Thames, UL and Tideway Scullers, and the Blue Boat beating UL, Molesey and the German top Eight, as well as a few unofficial fixtures at Caversham and Henley.

On the day both crews faced up against strong Cambridge sides. Isis were giving away 13.5kg to Goldie and staged the most incredible of comebacks from being down on the outside of the final bend to win by 1/3 of a length. The Blue Boat pushed out into an early lead but Cambridge hung on until a decisive move at Chiswick pier closed the race and sealed the clean sweep for the Dark Blues.

An incredible year all round and thank you to everyone who made it possible – it has been an honour to lead a squad as talented and as hard working as this one.

Oxford University Rowing Clubs OURCs

A year's worth of effort of the 36 college boat clubs is all placed into the four days of racing that are commencing this week during Summer Eights 2013, sponsored by Neptune Investment Management. While some crews will bump up and some will be bumped down, all should be remarkably proud to participate in the most notable collegiate rowing event, if not of every collegiate sporting event in Oxford. Unfortunately, this past year hasn't been the best for rowing, with heavy rainfall making the river unrowable for large periods of time, and severely limiting or cancelling many of our events. However, Torpids, sponsored by Neptune Investment Management was the shining light at the end of the dark tunnel!

The months of hard work involved are not only limited to colleges; the OURCs committee has been working tirelessly behind the scenes to run an event of this magnitude. Through all of this, Ian Maconnachie, this year's Rowing Sabbatical Officer, has been my right hand man, helping with all aspects of my role, and he deserves the biggest thanks from all involved in Oxford rowing, and especially myself. Special thanks also goes out to: the Senior Umpire team, especially Rachel Quarrell and David Locke, for their support, wisdom, and advice this past year and particularly during events; our senior member, Paul Azzopardi, who has assisted in keeping these events happening year after year; the OURCs committee, who have assisted in every possible way imaginable; all the marshals, umpires, racedesk helpers, launch drivers, boatmen, coaches, captains, coxes, and rowers; and finally to Neptune Investment Management for their continuing sponsorship that provides the financial backing for our events and develops talent through rowing.

I hope you all enjoy Summer Eights as much as I will, and may it continue for many years to come!

Summer Eights Rules

Bumps racing can be very confusing when you are new to it, so here is a little summary of the main rules to explain how it all works. For more information visit <http://www.ourcs.org.uk/rules/a>.

Eights shall consist of 7 men's divisions and 6 women's divisions, with the top 5 men's divisions and the top 4 women's divisions designated "Fixed Divisions", and the remainder "Rowing On Divisions".

The starting order shall be the finishing order of the previous year's Fixed Divisions.

Divisions shall consist of 13 boats, plus the "Sandwich Boat", except for the bottom division, which shall consist of 14 boats.

The boat that finishes first in each division may row as "Sandwich Boat" at the bottom of the division above in the same day's racing.

Each boat shall be started from a rope 50 feet in length, held by the coxswain, with the other end of the rope fastened to a post on the tow path. The distance between each starting post shall be 130 feet.

Not less than 5 minutes before the start of the division, the Senior Umpire shall order the firing of the 'Five Minute Gun'. 4 minutes later, or later if safety dictates, the Senior Umpire shall order the firing of the 'One Minute Gun'. 1 minute later, another gun shall be fired to signal the start.

On achieving a bump, a boat ceases to be part of a race, and the boat bumped also ceases to be part of the race.

A boat shall be liable to be bumped until every part of it has crossed the finishing line.

Glossary

Bump - when a boat catches the one in front and makes contact with it, or the coxswain of the boat in front concedes in order to avoid damage to people and equipment. Alternatively, a bump is awarded if a crew fully overtakes the crew in front. Two crews involved in a bump switch places in the start order for the next day's racing.

Headship - being the highest placed crew on the river (i.e. Bungline 1, Division 1), with no one ahead to bump.

Blades - a crew wins blades by bumping the crew ahead on each of the 4 days.

Spoons - a crew is assigned 'spoons' if they are bumped on each of the 4 days.

Overbump - when a crew bumps the crew that started three boats ahead of them, when the two crews in between bumped out.

Sandwich boat - the boat between two divisions that rows twice; once at the top of the lower division, then again at the bottom of the next division up.

Klaxon - the sound of the marshals stopping the race because it has become unsafe.

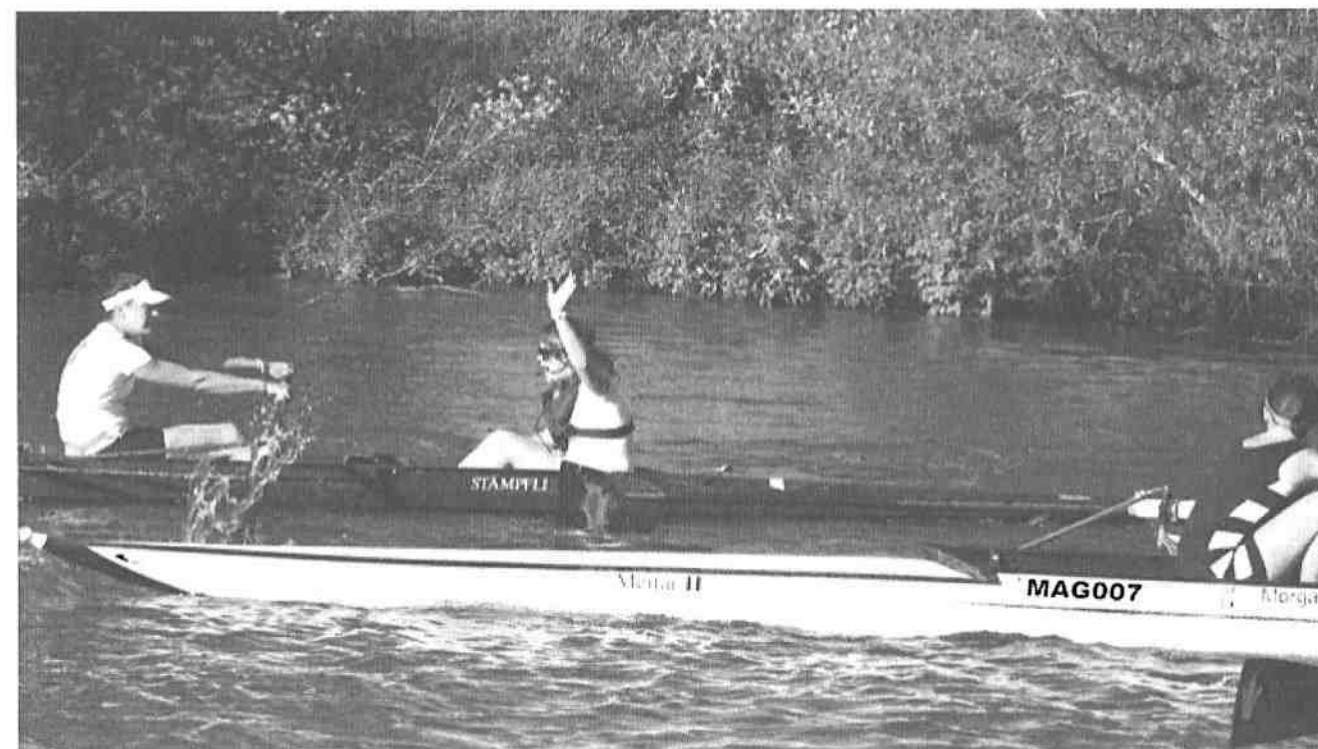

Five minute, one minute and start guns - an actual cannon fires blanks which can be heard by all of the crews.

Bungline - a rope tethered to the bank that must be held by the cox until the start gun fires. They are spaced 2 1/2 lengths apart on the bank, so that the gap to be caught up on the water is 1 1/2 lengths.

Poleman - the person with a long wooden pole who helps to get the boat in the right position for when the start gun is fired.

Cox - the only person facing forwards at the back of the boat who is in charge of steering and tactics. The cox has a microphone so that the whole crew can hear their instructions.

Umpires - the people on the bank who judge whether a bump has taken place.

Brasenose College Boat Club, alongside Jesus College Boat Club, is the oldest collegiate boat club in the world. We have been rowing since 1815, when we beat Jesus in the first ever recorded race. We are extremely proud of our club's rich history and, with our 200th anniversary on the horizon, look forward to continuing success on the river.

NEPTUNE INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT

Preparation.

Timing.

Teamwork.

We have a lot in common.

Successful fund management, like success on the river, doesn't just happen. It takes rigorous preparation, instinctive timing and a shared vision to stay ahead. Which is why all of our investments are backed by rigorous, team-based research and a shared vision to build high-performing funds. Giving our investors the best opportunity to have a place in the top boat.

The value of investments can fall as well as rise and you may not get back the amount originally invested. If you are unsure about the suitability of an investment please consult an authorised financial adviser.

Who will build the next Silicon Valley?

At Neptune, our fund managers are always looking to invest in the next big idea. By analysing global themes and industries we believe we can find the most promising companies.

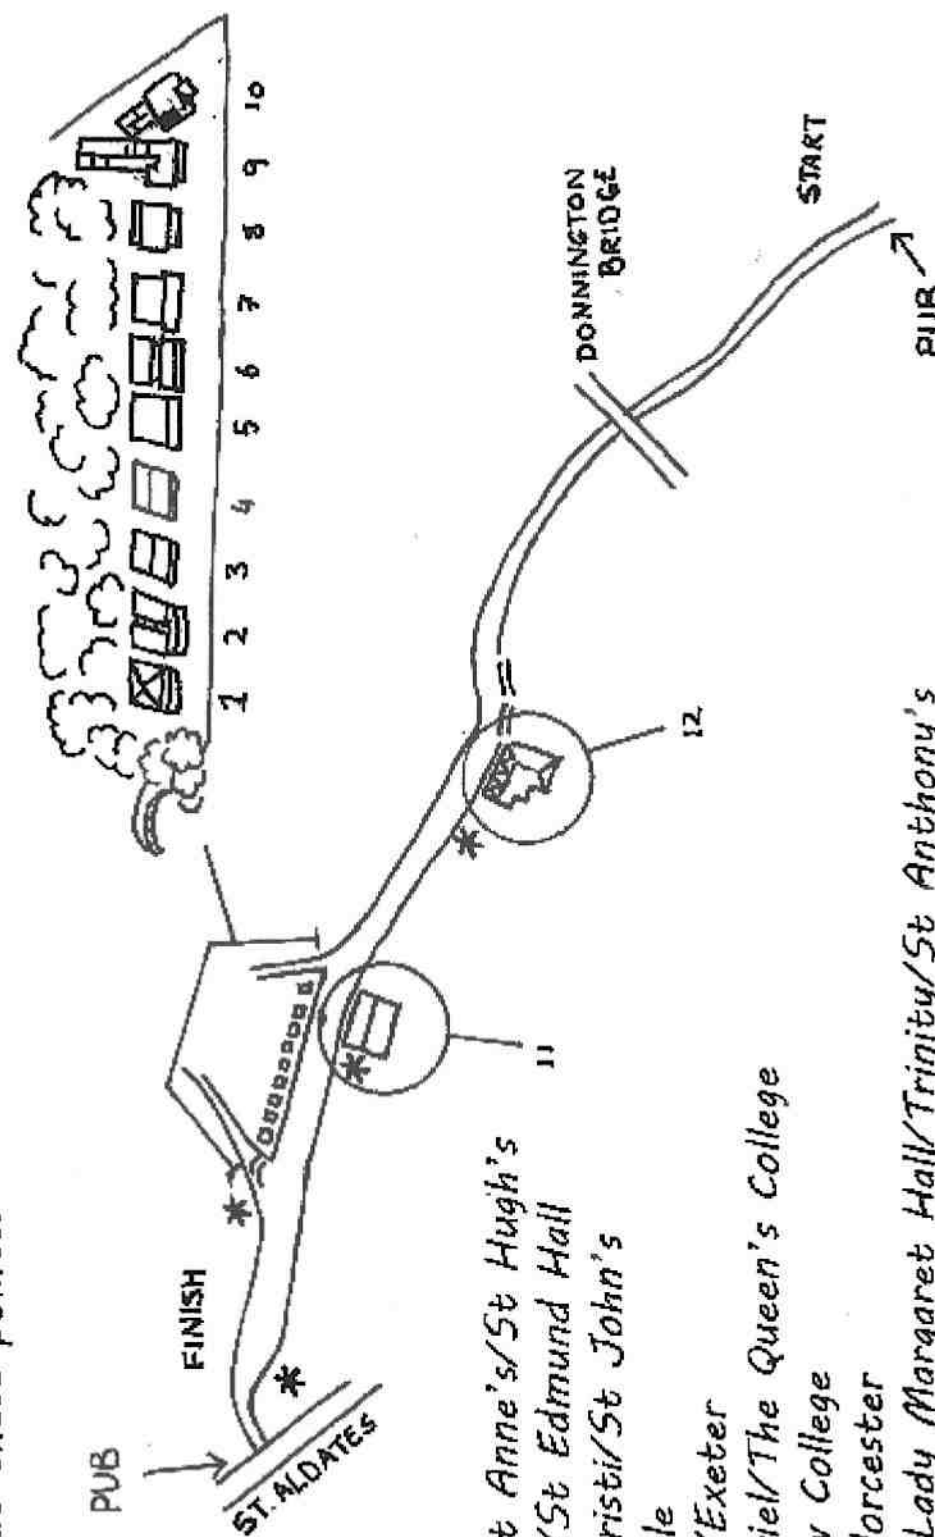

The value of an investment can fall as well as rise and you may not get back the amount originally invested. Investments in emerging markets are higher risk and potentially more volatile than those in established markets.

Oriel College Boat Club would like to thank Ernst and Young for all their support these last three years, our success would not have been possible without it. Equally we would like to thank all our friends and families, and in particular the alumni of the Tortoise and Blessed Virgin Clubs for their help, most recently for the 100 mile George Moody Challenge Row to London. Having you behind us is worth an extra man in every boat.

Coach
PETE BOND

Many thanks go out to our amazing sponsors at DLA Piper, to our entire Rowing Club exec, all of whom have given generously of their time this year, with some truly extraordinary results, and especially to our wonderful coach Mr. Bond. Pete, himself an alumnus of Regent's Park rowing, has donated so much of his heart and soul to making this team what it is today. We wouldn't be here without him.

The captains of St Anne's Boat Club would like to thank a number of people for their help and support over this year, without who, our rowing and training would not have been possible. Firstly our thanks go to our coach, Piers Barnett, for his rigorous training both on and off the water. Secondly to Kevin, our boatman, for all his help, knowledge and skills in dealing with the many boat-related problems we have unfortunately encountered this year!

The Steering Committee and the Consortium have also offered us invaluable support for which we are extremely grateful, and in particular we would like to thank our sponsor, Redington, for all they have done and continue to do for us... Now all that's left to do is BUMP!

SBHBC would not be able to function as a successful Boat Club without the dedication and passion of the team, our coach Pete Selwood, the Senior members, sponsors and friends of the Club. Particular recognition should go out to the Cuthbert Elliott, Timothy Bano, Jonathan Riches and Fra' John Eidinow for their long dedication and support they have given all members. In such a small Boat Club it is these personalities and their commitment to the sport that have given years of Benetians the opportunity to participate in Oxford's most famous pastime.

The Captains of SEHBC would like to thank the coaches that have helped us through this year, especially the two head-coaches Richard Fishlock and Nick Fulton. We would also like to thank the "Friends of the SEHBC" for their generous support, which made it possible for the women to purchase a new Eight and - in cooperation with the College - to refurbish our Boat House over the coming Summer. We also warmly welcome "Danebury Vineyards" as our new sponsor and we are looking forward to a flourishing partnership with them in the future.

We've had another good year with a lot of very enthusiastic people from all across college getting involved across the board. Despite the difficult weather conditions earlier in the year, the club spirit never faltered, and it's been great to see everyone making the most of a their time this Trinity. We're very grateful to all of our coaches for being so resourceful. This term, Gavin has made huge differences on the Mens' side, whilst Jim and Tom have provided similarly excellent work on the Women's side. We'd also like to thank our boatman Terry and our senior member Martin Edwards for all their help. Likewise, the continued interest and support of the Provost and Alison Madden is very much appreciated.

Worcester College Boat Club would like to thank both the college and our sponsor, The Big Bang, for their support of the club. We are also grateful to Richard Harding, who made a significant contribution that facilitated the purchase of the boat. Thank you also to our Senior Member, Andrew Carr, our Boatman, Mark Seal, and to all of those within the club who have given their time in sitting on the WCBC committee or coaching crews this year.

The Definitive Guide To Eights - Agonised expression should be identical no matter the seat

3 - The Obscure One

The last of the powerhouse.

3 is very like 4 - they do as they're told and push like there's no tomorrow

BOW - The Expendable One

Bow is always the first to be pummelled in a collision, so coaches always try to keep a spare few lined up, just in case

5 - The One In The Middle

Everything pivots around the 5 seat. They are the last of stern four and are responsible for transferring the rhythm to the bows

7 - The Lieutenant

7 backs up stroke's rhythm and makes sure everyone in the boat behaves

COX - The Shouting One

Easily spotted by their diminutive size and loud voices, they are IN CHARGE

2 - The Raging One

Being in the bows gives 2 a view of the competition, and, having absorbed some of stroke's competitiveness, is the most likely to scream (encouragement) at the rest of the crew

4 - The Follower

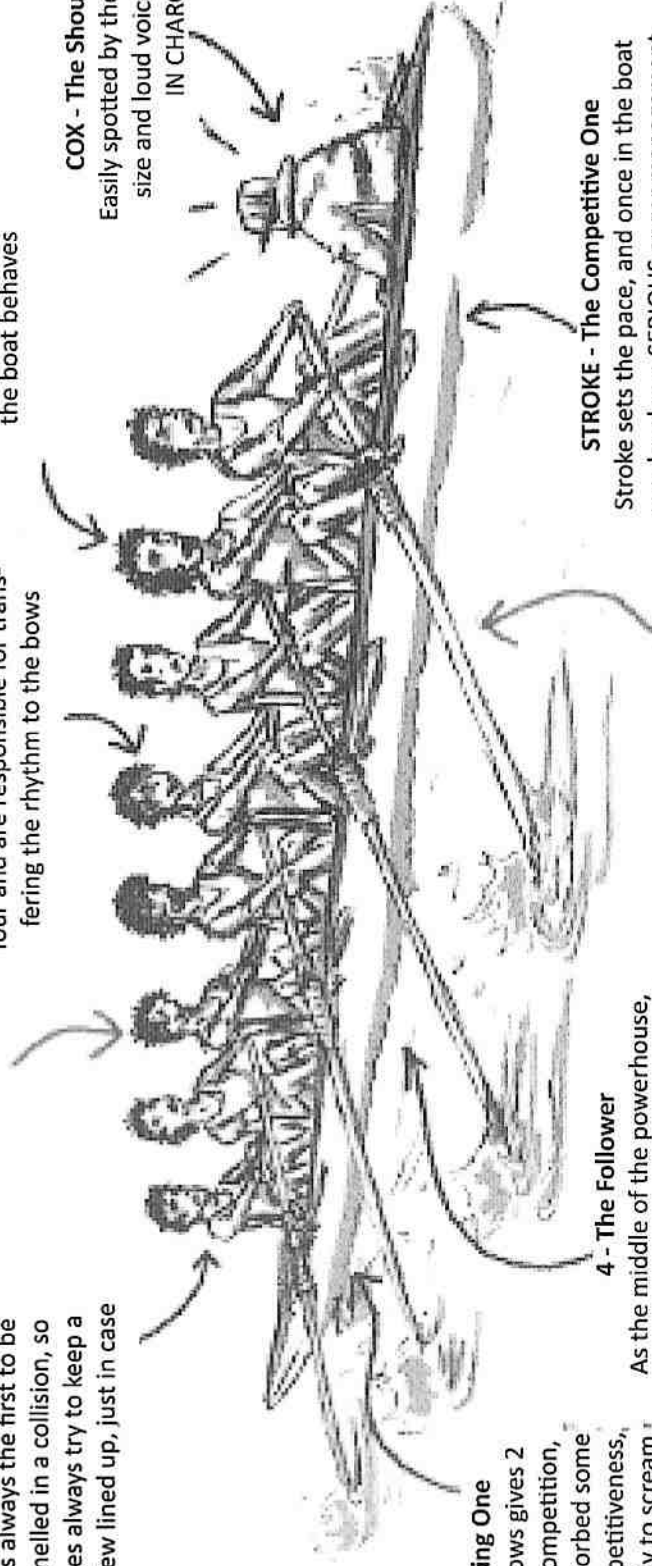

As the middle of the powerhouse, 4 gets on with the job of tanking it, sometimes to the point of being too distracted to hear the cox call 'wind down'

6 - The Loyal One

Stern pair's lackey, they do as they're told and transfer the rhythm to the rest of the boat. They are at the 'front' of the powerhouse.

STROKE - The Competitive One

Stroke sets the pace, and once in the boat can develop a SERIOUS anger management problem if there are other crews pulling ahead
